

Title: The Watcher

Written and Directed by Nate Bernard

Logline: Since the beginning Justus has been a watcher, resentfully protecting mankind, but when a young boy confronts his coldness, even the hardest heart can change.

Plot Summary: Justus is a watcher protecting mankind from itself, but when he crosses the line and becomes in danger of falling he is sent away to a small town outside the city. It is there a young boy named Sammy befriends him and challenges him to see the goodness in mankind.

Approximate Run Time: 75 minutes

Format: HDV shot at 1080i

The Watcher is a feature film created as both a fundraiser and outreach tool. Writer and director Nate Bernard has created a thought-provoking, quality film that inspires viewers. Net profits from dvd and ticket sales go local ministries.

The Watcher was produced by SkyRocket Creative Studio (SkyRocketStudio.com) and Master's Commission 360 (mc360.com).

Master's Commission 360 (mc360) is a nine-month discipleship program with a two-fold purpose, discipleship and evangelism. Discipleship is equipping young people to live out the dreams God has for them with character, integrity and power. Evangelism is about transforming lives and impacting culture: people have real needs that can be met by a God who cares for them.